See e.g. this thread about whether the Illuminati are REAL or not and the one before that about whether the moon landing was real and/or faked. These are just a few examples, this is a site where people actually argue about conspiracy theories. When I hear people like you say that he was "probably a Secret Service agent", I simply cannot comprehend it. Why can't we just accept that he was a person who did what he did, and that that's that? Joking aside, I do feel that there is more to this than just what we can see in the media. I've seen people say that the reason why no one knows the truth is because he had the letter before him, for no reason. Why wasn't that letter taken to the media? It can't have been used as leverage, because if so, why wouldn't anyone else in the "clique" have had the same letter? How can someone be involved in something like this and still be able to come out without even one person who was on the inside, basically even know about what happened? I feel as though people can be connected. I've known my entire life that there are certain things that people in my circle of friends can do. Just like I have this unspoken understanding with people I've been friends with for years, these people I've never even spoken to that I can still know what they're doing. It's weird and uncanny, to me. Slavery wasn't abolished in the U.S. until the 1857 Abolition Act, fifty years after the Revolutionary War. Much like the Gilded Age, it was just an unfortunate time in the U.S. History, during which slavery was commonplace. I used to know people who worked for the man, as the guy in the video said, and one of them was telling me he was "not telling the truth". I just couldn't believe it, and my reactions were very obvious to people

In a break with precedent, Francis will attend the burial of Pope Pius IX on Tuesday and the ceremony for his successor, Pope John Paul II, on Saturday. Francis and Benedict, the last two survivors of the six popes who ruled before him, both lived the last years of their lives in Rome. They will be buried in their hometowns. In choosing to attend the funerals, Francis is echoing a decision he made for the funeral of the late Jesuit theologian John Paul II, the first non-Italian pope.Q: how to set the value from the config.ini file to variable i want to set the value from config.ini file to variable like this #Source: [databases] dbname = tm_home_dev dbhost = localhost dbuser = root dbpass = dbprefix = # These are the two options I want to check against here. # Valid options are 1, 0, 3, and 2 # Database timezone dbtimezone = 'GMT+4:00' # Database timezone offset dbtimezone_offset = "+04:00" the config.ini file content dbtimezone = 'GMT+4:00' dbtimezone_offset = "+04:00" i use this in tm_home_dev.php Database Timezone: it show nothing A: $tm_home_dev = $GLOBALS['databases']['dbtimezone']; or $tm_home_dev = $databases['dbtimezone']; or $tm_home_dev = $databases['dbtimezone']; Safety issues in the paediatric emergency department: A systematic review.
