SALT LAKE CITY — A member of Utah's congressional delegation is calling on President Donald Trump to fire Secretary of State Mike Pompeo and replace him with someone who will stand up for the United States' relationship with Russia. U.S. Sen. Mitt Romney on Monday said he's troubled by Pompeo's failure to act after the Trump administration announced it was pulling out of the Paris climate accord. Romney said Pompeo should have clearly spoken out against the move. "It is my view that it's time for Secretary Pompeo to go," Romney said Monday during an appearance on CBS' "Face the Nation." "I think President Trump wants to have a secretary of state who's looking for opportunities for the United States to stand with our allies, stand for our values. And if we have a secretary of state who's not doing that, I think it's time for a new secretary of state." Romney
