The Losers There's a guy named Paco who never leaves the school and is not a loser in any way. His father does not understand him and is abusive to him but he can't talk to him, so he stays in his room and does his homework in class and he is very intelligent. One day, he runs into the school bus and decides to skip the school. After getting away he is caught and arrested by the police for skipping school. After getting back he's suspended from school for a while. Paco also bumps into a girl named Christina, who later becomes his love interest. One day, Paco is eating at the school cafeteria and he sees the other kids, who are there for a reunion dinner, get food from the teachers to give to them. Paco then eats from the garbage, but Paco looks at his plate and is disgusted and he takes it all and sits down and eats it. The lunch lady then comes to see Paco. Paco tells her not to give him food, so she gives him a sandwich and he eats it. Paco then leaves school and goes to see his dad, who is at a house of prostitution, and Paco tells his dad to leave that house, but his dad tells Paco to not tell anyone. Paco's dad, who doesn't like Paco and Paco's attitude, then gets angry at Paco and threatens to beat him up. Paco goes home and tells his mom about what happened at school. Paco's mom tells him to forget about school he can learn to drive. He then begins to drive a car. The next day, Paco and his mother are at a park, they are walking and Paco's mother falls down. Paco helps his mom and they get back home.
