Raghavendra Rao and written by S. Sambamurthy. Karthi has performed the title track, "Naa Peru Shiva", which attained great popularity. The film was dubbed into Tamil as Naalaya Vilaali in 1985. Plot The film begins with the story of police officer Shravan (Karthi) who is about to marry Prabha (Shobhana). Shravan's father-in-law Yegadi (Mikkilineni) is against their marriage because Shravan is poor. Prabha's father Mohan (Rajendra Prasad) is rich. Mohan promises to marry Prabha to Shravan if he loses a lottery ticket. Prabha's friend Anand (Rajan) finds the ticket, but in a hurry hands it to Shravan, who loses the ticket. Shravan then tells Mohan that he loves Prabha. Mohan then asks Yegadi to take Prabha as a bride. Yegadi's son Shraddha (Lakshmi) wants Shravan to marry his sister, but Shravan declines. Policeman Narayana Rao (K. Bhagyaraj) notices Prabha and Shravan together. Narayana Rao sees them in a restaurant. Prabha is forced to elope with Shravan, but Shravan gets arrested. Shravan's friend Anand also gets arrested because Shravan is in jail. Anand's sister Anjali (Revathi) loves Shravan, but Shravan does not return her love. Anand is released, but Shravan still remains in jail. Mohan searches for Shravan. He then hears about Shravan being in jail. The police captain there agrees to release Shravan on one condition that he gives up his love for Prabha. Mohan promises to fulfil Shravan's wish. Shravan is released. Shravan and Prabha live happily with Yegadi. Shraddha, who wants to marry Anand, prays to God to get her married to 2d92ce491b
