The Bible: A sword for the body; A light for the eyes; A shield for the mouth; And the servant of God, an oil to the spirit, will not abandon the soldier of His Christ. (2 Timothy 4:16) Scripture Annotator: Annotate and study all your favorite and refer to those and their synonyms in your favorite Bible version. SwordBible Portable Cracked Accounts Bible and Commentary search: Search the entire Bible and the Bible commentaries for all related words, phrases and topics. All About Me I am a full time student at Brigham Young University-Idaho. I am a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. I play around the Web quite a bit, and play in my garden if it is warm enough outside. You should check out Cliff's version of the Outlaw Bible Here's another version of the Outlaw Bible that is really out of this world: The NO PARKMIN variant of the Outlaw Bible (that is free) is really the best. The NoParkmin Bible is a trial version, and you can sample it using this link. Here is a variant of the Outlaw Bible that you can use and it has custom maps. It is full of illustrations and it is awesome. Here is the link. I need to update this list! Please let me know what is missing, has changed, etc. Best Free Bible Tools I have no affiliation with this company. I just like their tools, and am using them. SwordBible is my all time favorite Bible analysis tool. I have used the tools in both the Swordbible and SwordBible Portable Activation Code. I really like the portable version. SwordBible is a free Bible study tool. It is fairly robust, and has the major Bibles, commentaries, prayer books, and general books. It can download other books and update your SwordBible at any time. SwordBible Portable has the same features as Swordbible except it is stand alone and does not require a computer connection (and it also does not have all the commentaries). I really like The NoParkmin Bible. It is a trial version, but it has the full Bible and all the commentaries and some extra pages. The Craig's List Bible is a variation on the Outlaw Bible. It has many custom pages. I have used the Craig's List Bible 09e8f5149f

SwordBible is a free Bible study tool. There are two ways to use SwordBible: a) Stand Alone You can download the SwordBible Portable Study Bible and all the comments or study notes that are in the SwordBible Book format (Bible, commentaries, dictionaries) to your portable device (iPod, USB flash drive, Portable Hard Drive, memory stick, etc.) without the SwordBible application. b) The SwordBible Application If you do not already have the SwordBible application for your portable device, download it now and then launch it. From there you can search for the Bible or commentary for which you are looking or check on a specific word or phrase. You can also email the comments, study notes, etc. from your portable device. The Nephite Scripture Browser is the most powerful tool to find the Nephite (Lamanite) and Christian scriptures available to the public. It provides the ability to search a wide variety of text types including verse references, outline, journals and more. Choose to view the Lamanite or Christian Scripture separately or both in parallel in user-defined file formats. Choose whether to use the Search feature or manual navigation of the indexes. The Nephite Scripture Browser is freeware. It can be downloaded from the Jamus server at The Lamanite Scripture Browser is freeware. It can be downloaded from the Jamus server at The Christian Scripture Browser is freeware. It can be downloaded from the Jamus server at Here is a really handy way to handle iPhone conversations. You can capture the whole conversation or just certain parts. The conversation is captured and then stores it into a.rtf file which you can then edit. Just choose the conversation you want to capture from the list and then use the red button to capture the entire conversation. Or capture only certain parts and export them into a.rtf file by selecting the part you want to capture using the little green arrows. This is a simple spell checker that I created. It is a very simple application that looks up words in a dictionary (currently the 10 most common words for English spellings), presents them for you to select from the options in the bottom
