No Room for Justification in the Route Map of America's Public School Standards, Books, Supplies, and Teachers' Union Agenda for America's Public Schools. Between these evil forces, how is anything left to stand? Here is a sampling of what is left standing in our public schools, or what may be left if things are not to a stop before too late. One thing is certain, we can not let this happen to our schools. The fact is, they have in many cases become too big and powerful to be just swept under the rug. These corporations are now willing to threaten or get their way by the use of union money or through such other avenues as the United Nations. The fact is, too many people believe that a high school diploma entitles them to a well-paying job. Teachers' union members, for example, are no longer on a career path. They now have a career. They have an industry in which they are trained, products to sell, and a benevolent world controlling it. They have a set of tools at their disposal that no other person has that may lead them to power and a cozy place in society. The schools belong to the children, not the teachers' union. Join fellow patriots in leaving your comments about this article and commenting on what we can do. Remember, it does not take just a few, but a vast number of us to make a difference. We need to gather the truth about the danger facing our public schools, and develop a plan of action to defeat this organized threat. We must establish contact points where we can communicate, and meet. We can not only do this together, but for maximum effectiveness and strength, we can operate independently and accomplish our goals. One of our goals must be education, either in and of itself, or with the idea that our children are our future. We will strive to protect and
