Who will back up my key? We deliver the license key ONLY ONCE!n Once it reaches your computer, you are responsible for backing it up. Do not try to use a backup made by another person. Never trust that a copy of your license key makes a copy of your computer. In any case, your copy of the key will be erased and you will not be able to use your previous copies on the new key. Only original keys belonging to you and only you will have access to all your rights.n When you receive the key, plug it into your computer. Is that how you did it?
