page.Q: iOS Interface Builder - The Interface doesn't match the Class when I run my app in xcode, it does not match up with my objective-c class, although in the class I have coded so far, there aren't any errors and the class works fine.

However, the same is not true when I run it in the simulator.

what is wrong with it and how can i fix this? A: In your xib, you most likely do not have a UIViewController selected as the File's Owner (the red circle). Make sure the view controller is selected, and click Edit > Embed In > Container View.

Decreased performance when switching from a central to an occipital scotoma (Scotoma Switch) compared with central scotoma alone (Scotoma Control). The aim of the current study was to compare the performance of patients with a central retinal scotoma with those of patients with a central scotoma plus a concomitant scotoma in the opposite visual field.

Scotoma Switch and Scotoma Control groups were defined as patients with a central scot
