Apatowow It's not that I don't like to laugh, it's just that it's for a very specific purpose. I laugh because I can't help it. So that I can place myself in a situation where I might actually be safe from getting hurt. From losing someone. From becoming broken. I laugh because there is no one to safely hold me or console me. I laugh because of the humour in it. I laugh because of the hopelessness. Laughter is such a healing
