A: Yes you do, you have to download the free version. Once you have downloaded the software you have a licence key. You use the licence key to convert any file (like the image files) within the folder you've selected. You can also save the output file to any folder you select. If you want to convert an image file within the directory of the program, you select the image in the folder and then click "Convert" and "Convert to PDF". You will see the output appear in the new folder.
