SysTools Lotus Notes Emails To Exchange Archive [Mac/Win]

The application is designed to provide users with the possibility of easily converting Lotus Notes emails or Domino Server mailboxes to Exchange Archive. The conversion is being performed with two modes: either by converting multiple NSF files or by converting multiple Domino Server mailboxes. The app is more powerful than other tools that it comes with a live report which is being produced as soon as the conversion is started and it can be seen at any time. Save My Lunch by Marjan van der Eijk Jul 12, 2014 Great for Quickly Converting the Contents of Many NSF files to Outlook Save My Lunch does an amazing job converting the contents of multiple NSF files to .pst file format, without having to go through the tedious process of converting each NSF file individually. It does this by reading all the NSF files in a folder and then doing it recursively on any sub-folders, resulting in a .pst file in each of those sub-folders. There's no additional cost for each conversion done. I hope you find this software useful. Full Access To Any Folder by zach Jul 12, 2014 This program allows you to easily convert multiple NSF (Notes) files into an Exchange 2007-2012 archive email format. It does a great job at this task, and saves me a lot of time and effort. The speed and smoothness at which the conversion is performed is one of the best around. Simple and Easy by lucas Jul 12, 2014 Since I migrated to Outlook, I haven't touched MS Notes anymore. I started using this software to convert my Notes files into Outlook.pst and it does a great job at this task. It's extremely simple and easy to use. Convert Notes to PST & Attach Notes to new PST File with Save PST Attachments by manpaul Jul 12, 2014 SysTools Lotus Notes Emails to Exchange Archive is the solution. I am a happy consumer. I have been using this for some time now. It is super easy. The PDF document on the official SysTools website may say that it does both. However, I have not found anything on the web where I can verify that it does both, and does it well. Time will tell if this is true or not. Great Work by

The medicinal penis was serving as a hook to catch more potential clients at the Hampton Inn and Conference Center in Dundee. Police said they have been busy with this case since May, and after capturing the male subject, officers identified him as a 25-year-old from Dundee. Police say they've already charged him with one count of prohibited use of a prohibited instrument. According to York Regional Police, they were called on May 25 to investigate a suspicious incident. Police said they discovered the suspect "was using a large latex rubber penis to simulate a medical device." The suspect was using the item to advertise services or an "ambulance emergency clinic." "Officers discovered that the penis was being placed in strategic public locations within the hotel," York police said in a news release. Police said they spotted the suspect with the rig on Friday, June 9, when he allegedly "advertised a 'certain remedy' to people waiting for their rooms." Investigators said there are no laws in the region that prevent someone from advertising a good or service using an object, so police decided to leave it up to their discretion. "We have been charged with the discretion of what constitutes a prohibited instrument and it's a grey area," said York police Sgt. Ian Herbert. "We identified it as a medical device and we didn't feel it to be a weapon." Herbert said it's clear that "this
