The "Books" section presents the works of famous European and American authors, in particular, poets, prose writers, playwrights and critics. There are also rare publications devoted, for example, to the problems of children's literature. Here you can find both classic novels and modern literary dramas. Books are presented in various formats, so you can choose the one that suits you. In the "Audiobooks" section you will find works by the most famous writers, including works by the classics.
