

Agricultural Songs from the Poet-King: Translation and Interpretation of Janakavi's Sinhalese Work. Alex McKinley. The Sri Lanka Journal of the Humanities (2017) 41: . Introduction. History. "Creamy" King Janakavi love songs. In Sri Lanka, there is not a single book with a Sinhalese poetic text in which love would be sung. However, for many Sinhalese, especially young ones, this love exists and finds expression in songs. In the Sinhalese state, love was most likely forbidden, since the Sinhalese language does not have the word "love", but there are words with a similar meaning - "understand", "honor", "respect", "not offend".
