Tiberian Sun Offers Hints and Tips The image below indicates the "Tips & Hints" list in Tiberian Sun. New Feature: "Tree of Decorations" Select the root decorations from the Decoration Picker. Choose if you want to display the decorations on the base of a unit. Otherwise, you can also make the decorations visible on the unit itself. Set different unit names for each side. By default, the map elements are numbered in ascending order. You can reverse their order. This feature can be used as a separate panel. This is useful for the player since the map is the only element of the campaign that cannot be saved in the archive. Unit Effects panel Do you want to improve a unit's stats by your own choice? This feature lets you edit and test unit effects without actually playing the unit. The effects that are selected will be changed after you press the Apply button. 77a5ca646e
