Green Bay Packers head coach Mike McCarthy and the rest of his staff were impressed with the work ethic and commitment of teams making a charge for the coveted Super Bowl. The Packers were 0-2 heading into their bye. They ended their skid with a 4-3-1 record to close out the regular season, securing a playoff berth. On Sunday, the Los Angeles Rams won their fourth straight game, sealing the NFC West title and a spot in the postseason. When asked about the Rams' success, McCarthy was told that Los Angeles players were saying, "We are going to the Super Bowl. We are going to the Super Bowl." McCarthy stated that the Rams deserve the recognition. "They have done a great job," McCarthy said. "They played well together and they didn't go out and just take a best-of-7.... They went out and they played their way. "They definitely deserve a lot of credit. You heard what their players said after the game." [RELATED: McCarthy rips Jaguars' flub in Super Bowl win, defends Cowboys] The Rams entered the postseason on a 17-game winning streak, and they've scored 36 or more points in each of their last five games. McCarthy acknowledged the impressive play of Los Angeles' offense and defense, as well as the progress his team has made during the season. However, the Packers head coach said the playoffs are "an opportunity for us to show what we can do." "You are going to play against a team that is going to focus on the same things that you are," McCarthy said. "They are going to run the ball the same way and they are going to throw the ball the same way. You have to be prepared for that." One of
