The film is based on two characters: Narayan, the director, and Raj Aryan, the musician. But in the film we will see them not in the form in which they were before. Although, of course, they remained the same everywhere - Narayan, Raj and Prabaker, they became different. Now they are not the same as in Krishnaloka and they are not even recognizable as if they have turned into 3 different people. The plot of the film starts with Prabakar being led into a room and asked, "Daughter what do you want?" A girl named Kerala has one very good thing, this thing is tea and Pabali, a very famous tea. Prabakovara decides to play a joke with her, he shows her the tea he took from Prabaikir and the girl does not understand how it is, she did not drink anything like that. But then, as if an insight came, and she understood everything and asked. "Why is it called that" And Prabakura understood what she asked and answered - "because it helps to remove all desires." And at that moment the girl realized that she did not want to part with this tea, which helped her to understand her uniqueness, she understood who she was and what she wanted. And for the first time in her life, the girl does not ask for a hand and heart, but simply takes it, as she told him. She loves Prabaha very much and he also loves her very much and, as I said, he also never drank anything like that. In this film, they begin to fall in love again, even though they broke up a few years ago. Then the girl began to sing, and he was in shock, he thought that he had a talent, but it turned out that this was not so. Narayan was imprisoned for giving this man a gift and he did not know how to tell his uncle about it, he asked him to hold the tea and show it to them. But Prabakekar was of the same opinion as she, and again said: "I will hold this tea until your aunt comes and you tell her about it." And now they are in prison, and Kerala has no choice but to pretend that nothing is happening, she does not even want to know what is happening in the life of her beloved, because when they parted, she was hungry and wanted to eat. When it was time for Prabakir to return to his homeland, Prabalya told Prabamoker about this and was very surprised
