Sixteen Swedish heavyweights have been put through their paces in Latvia's "MWE" World Cup, including a female flyweight who will try to secure a medal at the Rio 2016 Games. Organisers described the event as the first major international boxing tournament in the Baltic country's history, aiming to improve the local sport's standing, and "to put our competitors on the European map". Svenska BK took over the operations of the event, which was established in 2015 by Dainis Petrus, a veteran Latvian boxing promoter and commentator. The undefeated Swede Danis Terteraj made up seven of Sweden's total eight "M
