What's New In Mo 039;adim?

Mo'adim is an educational application for the weekdays and months in Hebrew. The software allows you to learn the Hebrew names of the weekdays and months. Additionally, it can display the weekly Torah, indicate holidays on the calendar and allows you to view the daily Aliyah. The software presents itself as a calendar with the name of the days in both English and Hebrew. Hovering over each day in the calendar prompts an explanatory window that indicates details about the daylight, according to the geographical zone you are in. Moreover, it includes indications about the daily prayers, the time they need to be made, as well as the Shabbat candles. Monthly Torah, passages, haftarah portions Mo'adim features several views, including monthly calendar, year display and the daily prayer details. Simply switch to the daily view and the software can display the prayer times, the proportional hour, Torah excerpts and a countdown to the major holidays. For instance, on September 19th 2014, Rosh Hashanah is 6 days away, while Yom Kippur is scheduled for 15 days later. You can easily view the standard calendar in a separate window, change the colors of the holiday markers or change your position on the globe. Due to the hour settings all over the world, the software can calculate the time correspondence, depending on where you live. Simple to use Hebrew calendar Mo'adim is displayed in both Hebrew and English, while the Torah and Aliyah excerpts are completely translated into the English language. Thus the application is a suitable educational tool for those who wish to become familiar with the Hebrew culture, week structure and holiday planning.Church Without Walls “Come, let us return to the Lord, for He has torn us to pieces and has afflicted us, He has broken us to pieces like clay” (Psalm 74:12). In our fragmented culture, a church that has lost sight of its mission—to re-make the world in the light of the glory of God—is apt to find itself in a wilderness of brokenness. It is desperately in need of a “repairer of all things.” Yet God, in His great compassion, continues to reach out to us. Our fallen human hearts and minds need restoration, but the God who loves us “to the end” is also willing to be our Redeemer, our “Repairer of all things.” Our spiritual journey does not end at the baptismal font. God calls us to be “a kingdom of priests and a holy nation,” and when we obey, He is our sure and certain “refuge” in every circumstance. Even while we are still surrounded by the host of suffering and the sweet caresses of the peace of God, His promise is ours. As we
