There are several variants of the model MT6580.PITTSBURGH—The road is not getting any easier for the Steelers. The Steelers were crushed, 18-3, by the Carolina Panthers and finished the season with a 2-2 record after two straight losing seasons. After the game, the Steelers looked and sounded dejected as they walked into the locker room. There was no energy, no emotion. Just empty seats and a team that was embarrassed, in front of 80,000 of its own fans. "I don't know," said cornerback Ike Taylor. "They were playing the Texans (earlier this season) and won, so it wasn't like we are used to losing. But this was depressing, no question." The Steelers haven't been able to close out games, and it really came to a head against Carolina. The Steelers led 16-13 after the first quarter but couldn't hold on. "Everybody had fun the first game," said tight end Heath Miller. "I'm tired of winning. It's a
