Description of the Related Art A radiation imaging system in which a radiation image detector is used to detect radiation that has passed through a subject, such as human body or the like, so as to acquire the radiation image of the subject is being put to practical use. In the radiation imaging system, a charged coupled device (CCD) or a flat panel detector (FPD) can be used as the radiation image detector. The radiation image detector used in the radiation imaging system can be reset to, for example, a non-operational state by a user through the menu of an operation apparatus, such as a control panel or the like. Furthermore, depending on the radiation imaging system, the radiation image detector may be incorporated into a housing, or the like. However, the radiation image detector is generally configured to be reset to a non-operational state by the user. Therefore, even when the user forgets to reset the radiation image detector to the non-operational state, or even when a failure such as a disconnection or the like occurs in the radiation image detector during radiation imaging, the radiation image detector still remains in the non-operational state. Accordingly, for example, during the radiation imaging system undergoes a trouble, the radiation image detector may not be normally reset to the non-operational state, which causes a problem. In the radiation imaging system, for example, a power supply for supplying a power to the radiation image detector is provided. In this case, when the radiation image detector is reset to the non-operational state, the power supply is stopped. Therefore, even if a

The new trailer depicts the action from the new film, telling the story of Rey, Finn, Poe, BB-8 and old friend Luke Skywalker. The new trailer, which took fans by surprise when it was released at the end of 2014, features a lot of new footage from the "Star Wars: The Force Awakens," but it also shows a lot of the beloved characters we know and love. It looked to be very exciting, and very much epic. In the trailer, we see the new Millennium Falcon, which looks really great; Rey's sequence with BB-8; Finn; Poe's new tricks; Luke's
