This is a light weight music player. It is very easy to use and has small memory requirements. There is a large variety of skins to make the player look like something else. The skin which gives the most interesting look is designed to work with Eonic. Main features: * Quite small memory requirements. As small as a normal song on itunes. * Possibility to play up to 5 audio files at once. * Ability to play files, that are not supported by the player (yet). * Possibility to enable/disable the player. * A «player bar» with many useful features and access key. * A possibility to change the speed and audiospecific (e.g. VBR). * The skins can be easily changed, with a simple scew. * Pretty good possibilities to customize, swithing and changing the skins. * Special skins designed to make some of you friendly opponents jealous. * Skin updates can be downloaded from the Internet, 24/7 * Ability to change speed of audio (because Eonic is doing that the sample) * A lot of other functional improvements. Installation: Deinitely, you need to extract the Pulse MP zip-file (included with eonic skin) to your Android device. To activate Pulse MP, perform the following actions: * Press the power-button and select the item with menu. * Select the «switch application» option. * Select the device which runs the Pulse MP (in my case: device which runs Pulse MP has the status «Bluetooth»). * Press the «ok» button. * Wait till the player is ready (playing sounds, etc.). * Press the «stop» button to stop Pulse MP and the rest of actions will be done in the primary, default application. Troubleshooting: Some times during playing, the player does not continue the play. To correct that, perform the following actions: * To restart Pulse MP, press the «stop» button. * Wait for Pulse MP to shut down and re-open it (press the «start» button). * You have to press the same button for 10 times. If you have problems with Eonic and Cybersmiths skins, please perform the following steps: * Download «preset.bmp». * Click on the skin which you want to replace «preset.bmp» with and drag it
