NBA player power rankings: Beasley, Karl, Boatwright, Bullock Alexis Arahamian is a senior at The University of Iowa majoring in biology and journalism. She enjoys reading about sport, especially Olympics, and is a die-hard Iowa football and basketball fan. Presidential elections come every four years, and this past week has been too busy to write an opinion piece about the events. But I can't help but make one quick line about the current political climate, especially with the recent "Bernie or bust" movement. From my experience, I know most people don't vote based off of who the Democratic candidate is. They voted because they believed Obama would be president, and still believe this to be true. President Barack Obama could announce he is no longer the Democratic president, and his supporters would still vote for him. And if I'm voting for the Democratic nominee this November, I'll be voting for Hillary Clinton. I have been for over a decade. It's the same for all of my friends. The economy is down, jobs are scarce. The student loan debt crisis is real. Food-stamp usage in America has doubled in the last 16 years. Millions of Americans in need of assistance are not receiving it. Just the fact that we are in this situation puts the economy to one side. Yes, the economy is important, but we can't allow the economy to sink even further than it already is. Now, I know the Democrats have a lot of things to work through before November. I hope for the best, but I'm not holding my breath. However, I will be voting for Hillary Clinton. I'm not a Bernie supporter and will not necessarily support any other Bernie supporters, but I do believe the people should make their own decisions. NBA Brandon F. Boatwright is a freshman at the University of Iowa majoring in biochemistry and communication disorders. He enjoys hanging out with friends, writing, and
