The technical data collected from players is then applied to the game, resulting in dramatically improved player motion and pass animations. FIFA 22 is the first game in the series to use this technology in full. For more information, please visit www.fifa.com. Features: HyperMotion For the first time in FIFA history, the game contains HyperMotion. This technology is one of the industry's most prominent innovations and enables super smooth and realistic animations of both players and players' interactions. Full use of HyperMotion makes it possible to bring to life the game's biggest players and the most important events in their careers. All-New Player Intelligence In addition to a new visual engine and animation system, players in FIFA 22 are more intelligent than ever. They react like real players to an incredible array of challenges, and will once again respond to you differently when you move them. Improved Movement The overall movement system has been improved significantly. The responsiveness of players and the ease with which they make precise movements have been improved, while the game now handles more types of movement. Players will now naturally move in curved shapes, which means that you can drive them in the correct direction to the top of a box, for example. Tactics A new feature, Tactics Manager, makes it possible for you to easily and intuitively plan your tactics during a match. You can assign players directly to tactics, choose their position on the pitch and link tactics to formations. Online Play online with your friends on the new FIFA social features. You can freely chat, create your own team and play for free or for real-life prizes, with or without your friends. New friends are also added to your FIFA social network without you having to invite them. In-Game Reporting The reporting system in FIFA 22 is even better than it is in other FIFA games. Players can report and appeal fouls, red cards and yellow cards through a dedicated menu. With the new foul report screen, you can report a foul when it occurs and watch the game continue, allowing you to determine the outcome of the situation. New and Improved Commentary A new broadcast commentary will provide a better sense of the match. The style and ambience of the commentary will also be less confining, allowing the commentator's voice to take on a more natural feel. New Real-
