domain registrar not a benefit? What will we get from a domain registrar like godaddy, 000webhost, etc? I dont think it makes sense for a business to invest in a domain registrar, as the work done by them doesnt bring them any benefits. A: For starters, registrar is not what the company calls it, but the one who provides hosting to the domain name. You can have a domain from any registrar (but you have to pay), but the more sub providers a domain has, the more expensive it will be. But this does not have to be your case. You can get it from other provider who has a better price (or any connection like GoDaddy, NYE, Tucows) What will we get from a domain registrar like godaddy, 000webhost, etc? You can get paid monthly hosting or a free hosting for 1 year (godaddy or 000webhost (not sure about others)). I dont think it makes sense for a business to invest in a domain registrar, as the work done by them doesnt bring them any benefits. When a company has a domain, this costs money (domain name and the guarantee provided by registrar), and they make a profit using it, even though it is their own company
