the new version of the browser on Windows 10, exactly one year from the launch of Windows 10. The browser was recently updated to version 11 in Windows 10. The company also gave the “insiders” inside Windows 10 the option to install and test the new version of the browser. Microsoft Internet Explorer has been a staple browser for PC’s for years, the browser has also been available for mobile for a long time, except for the Samsung Galaxy S3, Android 4.4 KitKat. Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox are currently in the lead when it comes to web browser competition. The newest version of Internet

Explorer on Windows 10 will most likely receive the same upgrade treatment that happened to other Windows 10 apps, that’s to say that it will receive the final version next summer, one year after
