(Iv'e used this as inspiration.If you have questions or are interested in doing a custom. Please send message) Wanted to ask if anybody has done a custom drift fit for a Mazda RX7, I dont have much info on that car besides this one. What I am looking at is something to live with, but raceworthy for a drift car. For those who know a bit about cars, im just looking for some design ideas. Let me just clarify first, when i say that the car isnt my own, Its a friend. I'm going to have to make a slight change, Its not going to be a souped up RX7 with a hole in the floor (not that i have anything against that) My friend has a cheap RX7 that has no bodywork and was pretty low end, like a 1.6 and a manual gearbox. It is going to need a few modifications to be able to enter some rally stages on race. If you guys have some design ideas of what i should do, i will really be happy. I would assume that you won't mind me going into a long explanation of it. Thanks. _____ [QUOTE=kazeyon;1259881]All those people who don't know how to read, if they read it, they
