GhostMouse Crack + Serial Key Download [March-2022]

Mouse activity can be fascinating, if you know how to get the most from it. In this tutorial, you will see how to record mouse clicks and mouse motion on the screen, and then how to play that recording back, so you can watch your favorite mouse activity in detail. This is a complex and quite interesting procedure but with GhostMouse it is easy to record and playback mouse activity. Let's start the tutorial now! The Mouse Activity On Screen Recording Process By default, GhostMouse works with a.mov format video files but you can export.avi and other video formats easily. This tutorial will show you a recording process for mouse activity on the screen, which should be enough to allow you get the idea of how to use the software. We will not delve much deeper into the configuration part or use any advanced features, as I already explained in the intro of the program. 1. Open GhostMouse by double clicking on its icon. 2. You will see the recording window. Set mouse events, as well as the speed you want to playback. 3. Click on the record button and start the recording. 4. After a couple of seconds, you will see a balloon telling you that the recording is taking place. 5. The recording is finally done and the balloon will disappear. 6. Open the file in any video editing software. You now have a recording of your mouse activity on the screen in the format you wanted. GhostMouse Features: You have now seen how GhostMouse works and how it can be used to record mouse activity on the screen. But if you are a curious person, you can look in the "Options" menu of the application, and see more features: 1. You can view and modify the speed at which the mouse activity is recorded. 2. You can increase or decrease the delay in the mouse activity. For instance, you can configure the recording speed to 1/10th of a second and set the delay to 3 seconds, so GhostMouse records 3 mouse actions in a row. 3. You can turn off the recording mode, if for some reason, you don't want to record mouse events. 4. You can choose to record mouse clicks, mouse movements or both. 5. You can juggle with other options related to mouse activity. There are some settings which will come in handy. For instance, you can configure the capture area, so it will start at a specified point and record until its ends
