Create a basic dropdown font list menu where you can browse and select a pre-defined set of fonts. Fireworks is a powerful image/vector editor. The program comes with an extensive feature list, including masking, measuring, exporting to EXE, Auto Trace, 3D modeling, UV Mapping, animation, and many other tools and utilities. Instead of designing a separate, individual icon for each folder, you can use the Folder Icons Generator to create a single color icon to replace the entire folder. To get started, select the shape you'd like to use for the folder icon, then choose the desired icon color and click on the "Create Icon" button. The tool will generate a PNG file, which you can download and use. Some things that you should know before making a folder icon: You can only use a single color for the icon. The generated file will be a PNG icon. It will have the full folder path. To change the color of the icon, click on the "Use Color" button and select the desired color. Create Text File Customizer is a free online web service that allows you to create any type of text file you wish. The service lets you input text, add formatting, and replace file extensions with other extensions. After making your desired file, you can choose whether to upload it on our website, send an email notification, or save it in your local or cloud drive. As well, you can monitor the file progress with the "tracker" tool that will inform you of the current and total bytes. When you are done, you can also manually download the generated file. If you are looking for something a bit more specific, Flash Font Builder offers a set of professional tools for designing and creating photorealistic fonts in Flash. In the app, users can import 3D models, which can be easily textured and animated. They can then work with ornaments and create custom swashes, ligatures, and other details. Users can also adjust the stroke weight and line height to create a variety of designs. The font editing tools include text scaling, text alignment, kerning, and sizing. Software Description: Create a colorful logo that can be saved and used on websites and social networks. Design tools offer 3D objects such as shapes, text, images, and patterns.
