Features: The Cast Iron Skillet is a full-sized 11/16" cast iron skillet that features a deep and attractive cast iron body. This standard size skillet is perfect for cooking the whole family. Filled with a special PU-Reinforced non-stick cooking surface. It is 3.5-inch in diameter.

Cast Iron Kitchen has been selling the finest cookware on the market for over a century. Their vintage-inspired skillets are made in the United States and feature non-stick technology that's easy to clean. It's hard to beat their quality, style, and value! "I love my cast iron cookware. It is the best to use for frying meat and potatoes. It is heavy, so when you do fry, you put on a very thick apron of oil on your arm and hold the cast iron skillet with both hands and move it around the pan to give it a nice, even, surface for the oil to cover. You don't need a towel." TopsyQuality says:

5.0 Liz O says: 11/7/2009 "I bought this cast iron skillet from the supermarket and when I took it home I washed it to use on my stove but the light-colored handle got spoiled so I opened a pack of that red and black fabric for handles instead. It looks great but it's not the same as the original. That is the end of the good things about this stove. It's only high quality if the cooking handle is original. Otherwise, good for for an everyday cookware."

TopsyQuality says: 5.0 Elisa M says: 7/19/2009 "Great heavy cast iron skillet. It is well made and looks nice. I bought several pans that have these stain-resistant, self-cleaning paints. I have never had the slightest problem with that." TopsyQuality says: 5.0

Sharon R says: 7/4/2009 "I have owned a few cast iron skillets over the years and this one has been the best one yet! It is nonstick. Love it! Buy it you won't regret it. It is a good size for the cooking I use it for. Very good to have a few in a collection. It is heavy so you d0c515b9f4
