STOPWATCH is an application to help you time your activities with ease. It includes dual-mode timers: a "Stopwatch" mode that displays time in real time and a "Tickcounter" mode that displays time in seconds and tenths of seconds. STOPWATCH has five counters: a stopwatch, a start/pause, a stop/pause, a stop/clock, and a clock display. STOPWATCH is completely automated. When you turn the computer on, STOPWATCH begins running. You start and stop STOPWATCH as you wish. You can measure time with absolute precision. LOAN CALCULATOR This is a utility to help you compute the monthly payments for various loans. LOAN CALCULATOR has two modes: "simple" mode or "professional" mode. In "simple" mode, the calculator will ask you for the principal, interest, and length of the loan and compute the amount of the monthly payment. In "professional" mode, you can specify a loan with a minimum payment, a maximum payment, and a final payment. The calculator will then compute the monthly payment for the specified length of the loan. GAS MILEAGE is a simple utility that tracks your car's gas mileage performance. GAS MILEAGE records and displays the car's gas mileage and the date and time the gas meter was last read. GAS MILEAGE is completely automated. You simply start and stop GAS MILEAGE when you enter and exit the vehicle. GAS MILEAGE is good for keeping track of gas mileage and other mileage-related information.

BIORHYTHMS is a way for you to work out your own body's natural rhythms, and it has two modes: "automated" and "manual." In "automated" mode, the program computes your body's natural rhythms, including your basal metabolic rate, your total body water, and your body fat percentage. It can compute these measures for different age groups, including children, teens, adults, older adults, and pregnant women. It can also compute other measures you might want to track such as cholesterol, blood pressure, and carbohydrate intake. It can compute these measures for different age groups, including children, teens, adults, older adults, and pregnant women. It can also compute other measures you might want to track such as cholesterol, blood pressure, and carbohydrate intake. It can generate a journal that tracks your body's rhythms from month to month. In "manual"
