Lionel Messi was part of a team of ten players who played for Argentina against Bolivia. Barcelona star Lionel Messi played in a historic friendly against Bolivia, in which Argentina celebrated their first win against Bolivia in 13 years. Messi played just over an hour as Argentina cruised to a 2-0 win, with Argentina's victory over Bolivia in a friendly before the World Cup clashing with their opening clash against Spain. With Argentina already through to the knockout stages of the World Cup after defeating Saudi Arabia last week, they will now seek to book their place in the last 16 and bring an end to three wins against Bolivia. Messi only won the game with a good free-kick and a penalty, with Sergio Aguero and Gonzalo Higuain also on target. Messi will hope to build on Argentina's recent form after losing their last five. Lionel Messi's appearance means he made five appearances for Argentina this year, five of those in the World Cup - the most of any player - having started the final against Germany, in which he had a disappointing game, scoring an own goal. He played in Argentina's group games against Ghana and Iceland before being substituted off and coming on for Argentina's final group game, a goalless draw against Russia.OFFICIAL: Terrence Boyd to AC Milan Boyd has signed a five-year contract for €4.5 million from Villarreal.
