Two ruling India Land (IL) group companies have been included in a cartel indictment that was handed down by an Italian court. Land India Resources SpA and Land India Resources Spa (Limite) and two other defendants are jointly charged with violating the law against price fixing under the Italian anti-trust laws, Agence France-Presse reports. The defendants are alleged to have engaged in collusive conduct in the production, marketing, and selling of cement in Italy between May 2004 and September 2009. The court found the conduct resulted in an increase of between 1.1% and 3.1% in the price of cement in Italy, AGN reports. The case was initiated by the Italian Competition Authority and the Italian Prosecution Office and is being investigated by the Cassazione Competition Enforcement Directorate. The defendants will face the possibility of fines of up to €550,000 (£410,000) or criminal prosecution for collusion. No response to the cartel allegation was made by the companies. The cartel case is being followed by the firms' senior management, the court has found, according to A.f.p. The indictment alleges that Limite guaranteed to Italian cement producers that their share of Limite-produced cement would not drop below a certain level. If the cement did not
