Section 6015 states: 10 (b) Equitable relief. 11 (1) In general.--Under procedures prescribed by the Secretary, if-- 12 (A) taking into account all the facts and circumstances, it is inequitable to hold the individual liable for any unpaid tax or any deficiency (or any portion of either); and 13 (B) the individual did not treat the partnership as a sham, 14 the Secretary may relieve such individual of such liability. 15 The Eighth Circuit has held that relief under section 6015(b) depends upon a "special equitableness" that is inherent in the statute. Brimberry v. Commissioner, 74 F.3d 946, 949 (8th Cir.1996). The Eighth Circuit required that the taxpayer prove all three elements of section 6015(b) before the IRS is relieved of the tax liability. Id. See also Baker v. Commissioner, 850 F.2d 1198, 1200 (9th Cir.1988) ("The three-part test in section 6015(b) is conjunctive; the failure to meet any one of the three requirements will preclude section 6015 relief."). 16 The Tax Court held that "petitioner has failed to establish that she is entitled to equitable relief from joint and several liability under section 6015." Porter, 100 T.C. at 372. The Tax Court stated that it would not rest its decision on the ground that petitioner and Mr. Porter had not filed a joint return. Id. The Tax Court rejected petitioner's argument that the fact that petitioner had not filed a joint return was a result of an agreement to
