You must be licensed to download and use Photoshop. You can do so by visiting Adobe.com. Installing Photoshop After you purchase Photoshop, you can download and install it on your computer. Follow these steps: 1. Download the latest release of Photoshop from Adobe's website. You can find the link on the home page. 2. Burn the downloaded folder to a CD or DVD. 3. Mount the DVD in your computer's optical drive. 4. Follow the installation instructions that appear. 5. Launch Photoshop. 6. Complete the optional tutorial that comes with the program if you want to learn how to use Photoshop's tools. You can access the tutorial by selecting Preferences from the Photoshop menu at any time. You can download additional tutorials from Adobe at its online library. 7. Explore Photoshop's features. 8. Decide whether you want to use your computer to work on new images as well as Photoshop. 9. Close Photoshop when you are finished. How to Edit an Image in Photoshop The program has many different tools that enable you to alter an image. For now, focus on the more basic tools — such as Select, Image, Tool, and other windows — and save the more specialized tools for future reference. In Photoshop, you use the following tools to create, edit, and modify an image: Select: The most powerful tool is the Select tool. From here you can select a specific portion of the image, or you can select all the items in the image. You can select an object, such as a word, a tree, or the window in the figure on the left, or select an entire image. The white arrows in the figure indicate the active selection. Figure 1-1: Use the Select tool to add or delete objects. You can use the Select tool in five ways: Move: Use the arrow keys to add or delete an object or to move an object. Use the scroll bars on the screen to zoom in and out. Select: Click with the mouse pointer to select an object or an entire image. You can then click again to select multiple objects or move them elsewhere. Delete: Click to delete an object, or use the Delete key to delete an object. Crop: Open the Crop tool and click to add or subtract an image portion from the background. You

René Claus René Claus (born 5 December 1944) is a retired Dutch football player and manager. As a professional, he played as a midfielder. Club career Born in Scheveningen, Claus played as a youth for local amateur club in the Eerste Klasse, where he appeared 128 times and scored 28 goals. He later played for ADO Den Haag, RBC Roosendaal and Standard. Claus played a total of 290 matches for ADO, with 63 goals. He is notable for scoring the winning goal in the 1966–67 KNVB Cup Final, when he scored after a volley from Arthur Højsted with his last kick of the game, as ADO Den Haag beat Feyenoord 2–1. He scored in the 1969–70 UEFA Cup Winners' Cup Final (ADO Den Haag 3–3 Ajax), in 1970 he won the European Cup Winners' Cup with the team, that won the 1968–69 season, and in 1972 he was a quarter-finalist in the UEFA Cup with Standard Liège. After an unsuccessful trial with Juventus F.C. in 1973, Claus joined 1. FC Köln, where he again failed to score in 13 matches. Claus returned to ADO where he won the Dutch Cup for the first time, in 1977, and scored one goal in the UEFA Cup. Claus ended his career in 1978, at age 33, having scored his last goal for ADO Den Haag in a match against amateur club on 28 October 1977. International career Claus was selected for the Netherlands national team on 12 May 1967 in a 1–1 friendly draw against England. He made his debut on 26 May 1969 in an 11–0 friendly win against Finland. Coaching career After retiring, Claus became a coach, and had a spell in charge of ADO, in 1983. In 1993 Claus became manager of VVV-Venlo. He led the team to two consecutive promotions, and two successive Vierderverkopen finals. He left VVV-Venlo in 1997. After retiring in 2002, Claus became a youth coach at the Netherlands national team. He retired on 27 August 2007, after a 0–0 friendly against San Marino. Adolescents' perception of dietary changes after an alternative meal plan. To compare perceived dietary changes in adolescents during the first 14 weeks of an alternative meal plan (AMP) with those during the first 14 weeks of a normal meal plan (NMP), and to compare changes over time in perceived changes for the AMP with those for the NMP. Participants were 197 adolescents (mean age 14.2 years, SD 0.9), who were randomly assigned to the AMP or NMP and received meals in school cafeterias. An ad libitum self-report survey was administered to participants in September 2004. Responses were received from 168 adolescents (87%) at baseline, 160 (82%) at 4 weeks, and 148 (76%) at 8 weeks. Many participants changed significantly in response to the introduction of the AMP, especially in response to food choices and snack and dessert consumption. A greater proportion of the AMP participants had a decrease in fatty food choices than did the NMP participants at 4 weeks (P Q: "Weird" behaviour with generics on javax.mail.Message I noticed that using a generic Map on the javax.mail.Message returned the null value, and it's quite annoying!
