Selling on eBay Selling on eBay is so fun and so exciting. I've had an auction for the past few weeks and it's been really good. I've actually sold something almost every day! I have also won some auctions and have gotten quite a few great items. eBay is a fun way to earn money and shopping is so much fun! It's a great time at Costco for many of our group, I get a lot of coupons and free stuff at Costco all the time. I haven't taken many pictures of my auctions and the ones I have used one that I posted before that has been my favorite.

Here are some new pictures of some of the auctions that I've had.

I love this camera for taking pictures. It's much easier than the one that I have now. I have this cute little camera holder that I used for taking pictures of the auctions and it makes taking pictures of other things much easier. I love it! This is my favorite camera. This one is actually a pack of tickets that I won and I think they are $100 each. I put a picture of a movie or something that I like because most of the auctions are for things like toys or games. I know this looks so dirty, but it's actually the best looking. This one is a cute dress for a little girl. I took a picture in my backyard. I think she would love this dress. This one is a bag of retro stuff. I got this all together as a gift for my brother. This is the inside of the box. The next auction is this one. This is a bag of games. This bag is full of kids movies that my sister got me. My favorite item is this one. It's a kid's phone case. I thought it would be great because
