Img2cad crack keygen serial patch.Q: Extract URL from server response in python I am trying to extract the URL and body from a server response I am getting from Facebook. The body of the message is HTML and I'm not getting any of the URLs from the HTML. I am using urllib2, bs4 and BeautifulSoup4. Any ideas? A: You can get the link via urllib2 by using the urlgetter and navfunctions to extract the link from the page. urlgetter uses mechanize to get the link from the page, which requires you to have a browser open for this to work. You can use BeautifulSoup to parse through the HTML to locate the link. Here is an example using BeautifulSoup to extract the link:

from bs4 import BeautifulSoup
import urllib2
html = ''' GETing links from pages
GETing links from pages Yummy Cake
