They are almost all in Japanese, right? If so, this is a big problem.. I'd like to hear the Japanese version sometime.

Name: BitterSweetBook RATING: Here are the top 10 villains for every series based on the votes. If I chose the wrong lines, please let me know.. With all of those under his control, he rarely did so.. Synopsis: The Gang Marine (Alex P. Sesal) Notes: This is the second anime project that he did. This is the movie that Sesal did before he became one of the most sought-after voice actors. For the second anime project, he did the role of Edward Glen Walker III. I am not sure if he is still doing this role. Villain: Though Marle always has a dialogue that is his self-mocking mezzo of his own personality, he is also a businessman, as he is always looking to profit from these projects. He does this by placing enough contracts with rich owners of companies, such as the one with Kurena, that he can profit from even if his own field is failing. He also does this by placing himself in his own series to make sure that he is the one who is in charge of what is shown, and that even if things go very wrong and he loses, he still gets his money. Hire: Though he is smart enough to think of numerous plans that he can put into action in order to keep his various projects going, he prefers to work with the more simple plans that he can think of right off the bat. The starting and ending theme of the series is the same. Reveal: Bad Business Kurena (voiced by Reina Takayama) Villain: Kurena is a wealthy industrialist who is also the CEO of a huge company. However, she is only keeping her company afloat by pushing it further and further into debt. She mostly comes off as rich in comparison to the other characters, and she most likely got a large degree of her fortune from her father's business. As for her hobbies, she enjoys playing tennis and body building, among other things. Notes: Kurena is by far the richest character in the show 648931e174
